

Magical Door!!

I opened the door and smelt...

The bitter, sweet popcorn,

The savoury taste of spicy salsa,

The sour apple flavour from the jelly,

I opened the door and saw...

A sweet-treat laying on the table,

The bright, sparkles of the sleeping bag,

The sleeping bag looked as cosy as a kitten rubbing its head on you,

I opened the door and felt...

The warm glow of the sun gently calling my name,

The golden sand tickled inbetween my toes,

I opened the door and saw...

The loud laughter of the children opening their party bags,

The giggles of the year 6 pupils dancing with their friends for the last time,

I opened the door and saw...

The darkness filled the air the excitement builds the atmosphere,

The loud cheering of the proud actors walking on to the stage,

I opened the door and saw...

The future.....

By Lily Giles