

The Magic Door by Ivani Patel

I opened the magic door and saw...
A never-ending giant rollercoaster
Waiting patiently for someone to arrive
Like a cat waiting to hunt a mouse.

I opened the magic door and saw...
Beautiful pastel-coloured walls by a cosy hot tub
Reflecting on the swimming pool's water
Like the moon in the night sky.

I opened the magic door and saw...
A golden beach welcoming travellers
Like soldiers returning from war.

I opened the magic door and saw...
A mouth-watering cheese cake sitting alongside melted chocolate
Like a graceful ballerina.

I opened the magic door and saw...
Giant galaxies leading to different universes leaping through space
Like huge dogs jumping with excitement.

I opened the magic door and saw...
A beautiful paradise with warm sand beneath my feet hugging me tightly
Like a blanket as I sipped a freshly-squeezed orange juice.

I opened the magic door and saw...
Hope for the future.
