

Go outside and get active with your family.

- Bike ride
- Forest walk
- Family park run
- Parents vs siblings obstacle course

With an adult, find an area in your garden to start your own vegetable patch - watch your vegetables grow and thrive.

Set your own homework task linked to our Science topic - Evolution and Inheritance.

I must try to...

- Read every day and have my partnership book signed.
- Practise my spellings and times tables.
- Try and complete one of the optional tasks each week.

What can we do in school to help protect our planet?

Think about what we already do in our classroom, what else can we be doing?

Year 6 Homework

Create a reading den in your house where you can relax and spend time reading your favourite books.

Charles Darwin:
The biggest name in Victorian Science.
Find out why...

There are many countries that have French as their official language around the world. Research and name five of these countries (excluding France).

How would you like to celebrate everyone's hard work at the end of SATs week? Create a mind map of ideas and suggestions.

Create a GPS board game to help with SATs revision.

You can play this with your family or with your friends in school.

Why are Mary Anning and Rosalind Franklin described as two of the most influential and pioneering women in Science?

The National Trust: 50 activities to do before you're 11 $\frac{3}{4}$

