Motte and Bailey

Core Knowledge

There were two main groups living in Britain in 1066 - The Anglo-Saxons & The Vikings.
 Edward the Confessor was the Anglo-Saxon King since 1042 but had he had no children (heirs).
 He died in January 1066. Three people wanted to be the new King.

The Normans built the first castles in England in the style of Motte and Bailey.

The Normans created a set of rules that allowed Kings to rule without democracy - The Feudal System
